Invitations:

- 6) Annual General Meeting on Friday 13th July 2018 at 7.30pm, The Trelawney Room, New County Hall, Truro TR1 3AY. Guest Speaker this year is Alison Jordon CEO of Pete's Dragons.
- 7) CC- We have been asked to collate a list of locations within the wider St Austell area (China Clay, Par, St Blazey, Fowey, Lostwithiel, Mevagissey) where there are broadband/ superfast broadband “cold” spots i.e. access is not available or is poor. This will be fed to the Superfast broadband team – feedback from businesses would be particularly useful. Can you please respond by 20th July.

- 8) China Clay Community Network Panel Meeting - Monday 20 August 2018, 7.00pm, Penwithick Social Club & Community Hall, PL26 8UH

Correspondence (email):

- 9) Joint Information Governance Group (JIGG). JIGG set-up by NALC and the Society of Local Council Clerks to support the sector on information governance, had its second meeting on 12 June. Some key outcomes included Information Commissioners Office support of JIGG, the importance of local (parish and town) councils working towards complying with the General Data Protection Regulation and a discussion on content for the new guide to be published later this year.
- 10) North Cornwall Cluster group writes: An incident has occurred whereby a new neighbourhood plan has been overridden by a rural exception site application at planning committee. The North Coast Cluster Group is concerned that this now sets a precedent to allow continuous rural exception sites to be granted on green field land, even though there is sufficient planned (and granted) housing to cater for the local housing register families.
- 11) Cornwall ALC Member Survey 2018 until 16th July
- 12) Armistice and Armed Forces Communities Programme. It is however fine to apply even if the event is not fully planned. To ensure that silhouettes to award holders are delivered in good time for events in October and November this year. Applicants must apply by 16th July.
- 13) CC- Information on a Breakfast Club for Armed Forces and Veterans in the area.
- 14) D&C Police- Summer Event security information
- 15) Cornwall Council's Safety Advisory Group regarding the Battles Over celebrations
- 16) RSPCA- At this time of year there is a real problem of dogs being left unattended in hot cars
- 17) Rail Network: Newbury Electrification line closures will run from this Mon, 9 July to Sun, 5 August
- 18) CALC - Star Council Awards 2018 is open for entries

Posted on website:

- 19) Various notices about the election; highways orders, etc.
